WELCOME TO UNDERCOVER FESTIVAL (VII)

As the festival season wakes up we once again present to you a veritable feast of alternative delights collectively called "Undercover Festival"

This is our 7th year and while it once again has a strong punk flavour running through the festival, please note that this is not just a punk festival as we have once again decided to bring in a line up including some other genres as well that we believe sum up what "Undercover" is all about.

Without the help of a select band of friends Undercover Festival would not have been possible; to them we give our thanks.

Thanks everyone for helping us with so much including flyering all sorts of weird and wonderful places, helping set up the festival and run it on the day as well and too many to mention on the small amount of space on this page but they know who they are.

Also thanks to all the bands, DJs, crew, everyone @ The Dome and Boston Music Room and of course YOU.

Have a great festival and all being well see you all in September back in Woking if not before

Mick & The Crew

SEE INSIDE FOR THE FULL LINE UP.

FONDLY REMEMBERING

Undercover Friends we have lost whether that be those who have come along or in a band or with one that has played including NIGEL MUDGE-STEPHENS BRIAN BARNET / ANNE MARIE GOSLING / LOKI DREAD all lost far too early in life.
