UNDERCOVER FESTIVAL

WELCOME
TO UNDERCOVER FESTIVAL (SOUTH ESSEX) 2025!

Undercover Festival, a genuine, small but proudly independent musical celebration of punk and alternative music including ska punk, post punk, Ska and much more.

Well once again we find ourselves at a new home for the festival.

Undercover 2024 in Guildford was a cracker, while all our regular gigs will remain in Surrey (see page 20) for various reasons I took the decision that we needed to move the festival and freshen it up a bit, with a view to where possible try and recreate some of the Bisley / "Undercover Family" feel back that we started with back in 2013.

I looked at a lot of places but primarily with camping, yes we looked at some locations other small events were at, that could have been easier to put Undercover on at, but I wanted something outside the box.

Battlesbridge Antiques Centre and all they have to offer there is a location that is certainly "outside the box" and will more or less be as unique as Bisley was, bar the early morning alarm of gunfire (if you were there you would know).

We live in difficult times, but we do our best to keep the music we love alive and with your support we will continue to do so.

Without the help of my very very patient wife Jen plus Jamie, Tash, Mikey & Eddie, Jack C, Zak, Keith, Sam and Ian, Sean Q, Ken, Payton, Shell, Sonya, Sean Q, Joe along with a select band of trusted friends Undercover Festival would not have been possible; to them I give my thanks!

Also thanks to Ruth from Punctuation Magazine, Martin from Essex Live and definitely Richie from CCR (The 234 Punk Show!) for their support.

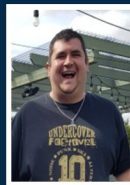

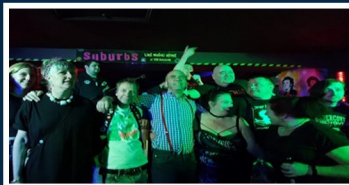

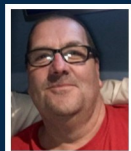

Thanks as well to all the bands, DJs, crew, everyone @ Battlebridge Antiques Centre, and of course YOU

SO... .. AS WE SAY AT UNDERCOVER!

SEE YA DOWN THE FRONT OR THESE DAYS AT THE BAR!

Have a great weekend

Mick & The Undercover Team

FINALLY:

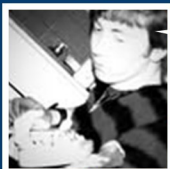

We are all here to have fun, lets look after each other; keep safe everyone and see ya down the front or at the bar!

What The People from some of the Undercover Family Say: We think its great at Undercover, but we would say the would we not. BUT what about friends of Undercover who come back every time!

I go to the Undercover Festival because it is the friendliest and great atmosphere, great sound system which complements the great choices of bands. Chinner

We have been to undercover festival for many years starting in Margate, the Dome and Boston music rooms, Guildford and now Battlesbridge. It's always friendly and we have gained many new friends who are more like family now, the music is always enjoyable and great. Lis McNally

Undercover has a great family feel to it and Looking forward to September having missed out on Bisley - Mike Talbot

"Undercover is a brilliant little festival. Our tribe are the friendliest bunch of misfits you could care to meet" Matthew Howlett

We go to Undercover because the locations are great, the people superb and the music fantastic See you down the front. Paul Kingston

The Undercover Festival is always a date that goes into the gig diary early. This year to add to the usual selection of great bands and friendly faces there is the experience of a new venue to look forward to. The only question that remains is the camping option!" George Walker

INTRODUCING TWO UNDERCOVER FESTIVAL CHARACTERS

Jamie the ever present stage manager (from RED Anger) along with Keith Woodhouse the larger than life MC have been a great help and key to the smooth running at each and every Undercover Festival. Undercover would not be the same without them. Check them out for a unique one off double act on the Friday over at Aprils Acoustic (ish) Den Of Iniquity.

WELCOME BACK KEITH Keith has not been well this year and we are chuffed to bits that he has recovered and is back fighting fit and ready for getting "most" of the names of the bands right when he is the MC for the main stage.

AN ACOUSTIC (ISH) DEN OF INIQUITY?

Since 2013 we have put on a fair few acts at the festival and stand alone gigs.

But with all the previous 12 Undercover Festivals only four people (apart from Mick of course) have been playing or treading foot on stage each and every time at the festival, there is of course Jamie the ever present stage manager along with Keith Woodhouse the larger than life MC for all our festivals (see page 6).

BUT - Only 2 musicians have played at each and every Undercover, the Undercover tradition that is now Wyrd Sisters whether that's been on buskers corner or on stage.

That's our very own April Showers and Bon Bessom, Bon also played Undercover a few times with The Piranhas Four (RIP Bob Grover, sadly missed).

So fast forward to this years Undercover Festival and we bring you....

APRIL'S ACOUSTIC (ISH) DEN OF INIQUITY

See page 10 for the line up!

Hosted by our dear Undercover Friends April and Bon along with Wyrd Sisters and The Hedge Inspectors, all in the bar tent and where the band merch will be on sale, expect some familiar Undercover Faces and some new to Undercover amongst the madness, in an acoustic or acoustic (ish) setting. ENJOY!

UNDERCOVER

At Undercover we are chuffed to bits to have Skids close the main stage on the Saturday.

The Skids were formed in the summer of 1977 in Dunfermline Scotland and would go on to make 2 albums and seven singles before 1979 was ended, and all bar one on the Virgin label. Arguably the biggest Scottish punk band of the 1976-79 era, their most successful year was 1979 where they spent over half the year in the singles charts with hits like Charade, Working For The Yankee Dollar and their biggest song, the top 10 hit Into The Valley. ENJOY!
